(a) The costs and expenses of the operation, maintenance and repair of the Building (hereinafter referred to as "Operation and Maintenance Costs") shall include, without limitation, the cost and expense to Landlord of the following items:

(1) All wages, salaries and fees of all employees and agents engaged in the management, operation, repair, replacement, maintenance and security of the Building including taxes, insurance and all other employee benefits relating thereto;

(6) The cost of any capital replacements and improvements to the Building, other than structural improvements, which cost shall be amortized over the useful life of the capital replacements and improvements in question, together with interest on the unamortized balance at the rate of one (1%) percent per annum in excess of the Prime Rate being charged by Mellon East Bank, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania as of the date on the first invoice presented by the contractor performing the capital improvements or such higher rate as may have been paid by Landlord on funds borrowed for the purpose of constructing such capital replacements and improvements;

(7) All other costs and expenses reasonably incurred by Landlord in the proper operation and maintenance of the Building; provided, however, that the following shall be excluded from the term "Operation and Maintenance Costs": (i) expenses for repairs or other work occasioned by fire, windstorm or other insured casualty to the extent covered by the fire and extended coverage insurance and comprehensive general liability insurance for the Building; (ii) expenses incurred in leasing or procuring new tenants (e.g., for lease commissions, advertising expenses and expenses of renovating space for new or existing tenants); (iii) legal expenses in enforcing the terms of any lease; (iv) interest, principal, fees or amortization payments on any mortgage or mortgages or ground lease rental; (v) expenses incurred in connection with services for which Landlord is reimbursed in full by Tenant or any other tenant of the Building; (vi) costs incurred by Landlord due to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord; (vii) any costs arising out of or in connection with the existence of any hazardous materials on the Premises not resulting from any action, inaction or occupancy of the Premises by Tenant or Tenant's agents or by sources within Tenant's reasonable control; and (viii) any charges for depreciation of the Building.

(b) "Real Estate Taxes", for the purposes of this Article, shall mean all gross real property taxes, charges and assessments (including any special assessments) which are levied, assessed or imposed by any governmental authority with respect to the land and the Building and any improvements, fixtures and equipment and all other property of Landlord, real or personal, located in or on the Building and used in connection with the operation of the Building and any tax which shall be levied or assessed in addition to and/or in lieu of such real or personal property taxes (including, without limitations, any municipal income tax, any license fees, tax measured by or imposed upon rents, or other tax or charge upon Landlord's business of leasing the Building), but shall not include any federal or state income tax, or franchise, capital stock, estate or inheritance taxes or any penalties or interest resulting from late payment. In the event that the tax statement from the taxing authority does not allocate assessments with respect to the Building and assessments relating to any other improvements located upon the land upon which the Building is situated, Landlord shall make a reasonable determination of the proper allocation of such assessment.

(c) "Lease Year" shall be defined as each calendar year (or part thereof) following the Commencement Date and included in the term of this Lease.

(d) "Tenant's Percentage" shall be 41.38%, which is the ratio that the rentable square foot area of the Premises (i.e., 33,578 rentable square feet) bears to the total rentable square foot area of office space in the Building (i.e., 81,150 rentable square feet).

(e) For each Lease Year, Tenant shall pay Landlord, as Additional Rent, Tenant's Percentage of:

(1) Real Estate Taxes for such Lease Year; and

(2) Operating and Maintenance Costs for such Lease Year.

(f) For each Lease Year, Landlord and Tenant agree that Tenant shall pay monthly, in advance, an amount equal to one-twelfth of Tenant's Percentage of estimated annual Operation and Maintenance Costs and Real Estate Taxes Additional Rent due for such Lease Year. For each Lease Year, Landlord shall make an estimate of Tenant's Operation and Maintenance Costs and Real Estate Taxes Additional Rent and notify Tenant as to such estimate on or about December 15th of the preceding year.

(g) On or about May 1 following each Lease Year, Landlord shall submit to Tenant a statement setting forth the actual Operation and Maintenance Costs and Real Estate Taxes for the Building for the preceding Lease Year and Tenant's Percentage thereof. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of such statement to Tenant, any necessary adjustment shall thereupon be made between Landlord and Tenant to reflect any difference between Tenant's estimated payments under paragraph 6(f) above and Tenant's Percentage of Operation and Maintenance Costs and Real Estate Taxes for the preceding Lease Year. In no event, however, shall the monthly rent paid by Tenant be less than the Base Rent set forth in paragraph 5(a) above. Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, have the right to inspect the books and records used by Landlord in calculating the Operation and Maintenance Costs and Real Estate Taxes within sixty (60) days of receipt of the statement setting forth the actual Operation and Maintenance Costs and Real Estate Taxes for the immediately preceding Lease Year during regular business hours after having given Landlord written notice at least forty-eight (48) hours prior thereto, provided, however, that Tenant shall make all payments required under this Lease without delay, and that Tenant's obligation to pay any and all such amounts shall not be contingent on any such right.

(h) All sums due under this Article 6 shall be appropriately apportioned and prorated for any portion of a year during which this Lease shall be in force. In the event that this Lease shall expire at any time other than at the end of a calendar year or tax year, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of written statements reflecting the actual Operation and Maintenance Costs and/or Real Estate Taxes for the year in which such expiration occurs are submitted by Landlord to Tenant, either Landlord or Tenant shall pay to the other party the adjustment sum due. The provisions of this paragraph 6(h) shall survive the expiration of this Lease.

(i) If the Building is less than 95% occupied during any portion of any Lease Year, then Landlord shall adjust the Operation and Maintenance Costs for any such Year to an amount which reasonably reflects what the Operation and Maintenance Costs would have been for such Lease Year had the Building been 95% occupied throughout such Lease Year.

(j) The Additional Rent due under the terms and conditions of this Article 6 shall be payable by Tenant without any setoff or deduction and shall be prorated as aforesaid during the first and last calendar years of the term, including any renewal thereof.

(k) Tenant shall have the option to pay any single specific expenditure which is part of Operation and Maintenance Costs which (i) is in addition to those amounts payable pursuant to paragraph 6(f); (ii) is incurred in any single month; and (iii) exceeds the amount of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), in equal monthly installments on the first day of each month during the number of full calendar months contained within the remainder of the calendar year in which such expenses were billed.

(l) Management fees shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the sum of Base Rent plus Additional Rent.

7. LATE PAYMENT. In the event that any payment required by Tenant under the provisions hereof shall not be paid when due or within ten (10) days after its due date, Tenant shall, upon demand, pay a late charge to Landlord of $.10 for each dollar so overdue and such late charge shall be deemed "Additional Rent" for all purposes under this Lease.

8. USE OF PREMISES. Tenant shall use and occupy the Premises for purposes of general offices and or labs. Tenant shall not use or occupy the Premises for any other purpose or business without the prior written consent of Landlord, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall observe and comply with the Rules and Regulations attached hereto as Exhibit B and made part hereof. All such Rules and Regulations shall apply to Tenant and its employees, agents, licensees, invitees, subtenants and contractors.

9. COMMON AREAS. All parking areas, walkways, driveways, alleys, and other areas, facilities and improvements as may be provided by Landlord from time to time for the general use, in common, of Tenant and other tenants, their employees, agents, invitees and licensees, shall at all times, be subject to the exclusive control and management of Landlord, and Landlord shall have the right from time to time to establish, modify and enforce reasonable rules and regulations with respect to all such areas, facilities and improvements; provided, however, that such rules and regulations shall apply equally to all tenants of the Building.

10. ALTERATIONS AND TRADE FIXTURES, REMOVAL.

(a) Tenant has examined the Premises and agrees to accept them in their present "as is" condition, and Tenant agrees that neither Landlord nor any agent has made any representation as to the present or future condition of said Premises. Except as expressly set forth to the contrary herein, all work to be done or performed in or about the Premises shall be done by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense and in accordance with the provisions of this Article 10. Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after the date of execution of this Lease, deliver to Landlord detailed plans and specifications prepared by and at the expense of Tenant complying with Landlord's design criteria and consistent with the architectural and mechanical requirements of the Building. Landlord shall review such plans and specifications and return same to Tenant within ten (10) business days after receipt, either marked approved, marked to show the corrections required (in which event such marked-up plans and specifications shall be deemed approved as marked-up), or marked disapproved with the reasons therefor. If Landlord disapproves Tenant's plans and specifications, Tenant shall have twenty (20) days from the date of such disapproval to submit revised plans and specifications subject to subsequent mark-ups or disapprovals and corrections in the manner set forth above. Upon approval by Landlord of Tenant's plans and specifications in accordance herewith, Tenant shall proceed with due diligence to commence and complete the work to be performed by Tenant.

(b) Tenant shall not do any work in or about the Premises or make any alterations or additions thereto without the written consent of Landlord, which consent will not be unreasonably, withheld, conditioned or delayed, first had and obtained. All work consented to by Landlord, to be done or performed in or about the Premises by Tenant, whether prior to the Commencement Date or thereafter, shall comply with Landlord's design criteria and be consistent with the architectural and mechanical requirements of the Building, and shall be performed (i) at Tenant's sole cost and expense, (ii) in accordance with the plans and specifications prepared by and at the expense of Tenant and approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, (iii) by contractors and materialmen approved by Landlord, approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and (iv) pursuant to bids approved by Landlord. During the course of performance of said work, Tenant will carry or cause to be carried such insurance as may from time to time be required by Landlord naming the Landlord and Landlord's agent as additional insureds and further providing that such insurance cannot be canceled without thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord and Landlord's agent. Landlord shall require a guarantee by each of Tenant's prime contractors and materialmen for the benefit of the Landlord, Tenant and such other parties as Landlord shall designate that all work performed and materials and equipment furnished by such contractors will conform to the requirements of the plans and specifications as to the kind, quality, function of the equipment and characteristics of material and workmanship and will remain so for a period of at least one year from the date that the work has been completed, and in the event any deficiency, defects, faults or imperfections of materials, equipment or workmanship shall appear prior to the expiration of such one-year period, the contractor, upon receiving written notice thereof from Landlord or Tenant, will immediately correct and repair the same at the expense of such contractor; said guarantees to be effective whether or not any part of the aforesaid work has been subcontracted by the contractor. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Tenant may make non-structural alterations to the interior of the Premises if the cumulative cost thereof during the term of this Lease and the Renewal Term does not exceed a sum equal to Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00). Any such alterations shall be performed in a workmanlike manner with good and sufficient materials and at Tenant's sole cost and expense. All permanent improvements and fixtures (except trade fixtures) installed by Tenant shall become and remain the property of Landlord.

(c) Any consent by Landlord permitting Tenant to do any or cause any work to be done in or about the Premises shall be and hereby is conditioned upon Tenant's work being performed by workmen and mechanics working in harmony and not interfering with labor employed by Landlord, Landlord's mechanics or their contractors or by any other tenant or its contractors. If at any time any of the workmen or mechanics performing any of Tenant's work shall be unable to work in harmony or shall interfere with any labor employed by Landlord, other tenants or their respective mechanics and contractors, then, if Tenant fails to remove such workmen or mechanics within five (5) days after receipt of notice thereof by Landlord, the permission granted by Landlord to Tenant permitting Tenant to do or cause any work to be done in or about the Premises, may be withdrawn by Landlord upon forty-eight (48) hours written notice to Tenant.

(d) All alterations, interior decorations, improvements or additions made to the Premises by Tenant, except for movable furniture and trade fixtures, shall immediately become Landlord's property. So long as Tenant is not in default hereunder after the expiration of notice and any applicable cure period, Tenant shall have the right to remove all movable furniture and trade fixtures installed by Tenant in the Premises, provided that Tenant repairs any damage caused to the Premises by said removal. Prior to the expiration of the Lease term, Tenant shall remove any of said movable furniture and trade fixtures installed by Tenant and repair any damage caused to the Premises by said removal. In the event that Tenant fails to remove same and repair any damage caused thereby on or before said expiration date, Tenant agrees to reimburse and pay Landlord, including reasonable charges for overhead and profit, for the cost of removing same and repairing any damage to the Premises caused by said removal. All of said movable furniture and trade fixtures remaining on the Premises after said expiration date, or at such sooner termination date due to any default of Tenant, may, at Landlord's option, be deemed abandoned by Tenant, whereupon the same shall automatically become the property of Landlord.

11. MECHANICS' LIENS AND INSURANCE. Prior to Tenant performing any construction or other work on or about the Premises for which a lien could be filed against the Premises or the Building, Tenant shall supply Landlord in every case with satisfactory evidence of the following items: (a) the procurement of all necessary permits and authorizations from the various governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the Premises; (b) the due filing of a satisfactory waiver against mechanics' liens executed by the contractor; and (c) workmen's compensation insurance, public liability insurance, and property damage insurance in amounts, form and content, and with companies satisfactory to Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any mechanics' or other lien shall be filed against the Premises or the Building purporting to be for labor or material furnished or to be furnished at the request of the Tenant, then Tenant shall at its expense cause such lien to be discharged by payment, bond or otherwise, within ten (10) days after the filing thereof. If Tenant shall fail to cause such lien to be discharged of record within such ten-day period, Landlord may cause such lien to be discharged by payment, bond or otherwise, without investigation as to the validity thereof or as to any offsets or defenses thereto. Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless against any and all claims, costs, damages, liabilities and expenses (including attorneys' fees) which may be brought or imposed against or incurred by Landlord by reason of any such lien or discharge.

12. CONDITION OF PREMISES. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that, except as expressly set forth in this Lease, there have been no representations or warranties made by or on behalf of Landlord with respect to the Premises or the Building or with respect to the suitability of either for the conduct of Tenant's business. The execution of this Lease by Tenant shall conclusively establish that the Premises and the Building were at such time in satisfactory condition, order and repair.

13. UTILITIES.

(a) Tenant shall be solely responsible and shall promptly pay all rents, costs and charges for water service, sewer service, air-conditioning and ventilation, gas, electricity, light, heat, steam, power, telephone and other communication services, and any and all other utilities or services rendered or supplied upon or to the Premises directly to the entity supplying such utilities. Where not separately metered to Tenant, Tenant shall pay its proportionate share of such items.

(b) Tenant shall install and maintain, at Tenant's expense, such meters as shall be necessary to measure consumption by Tenant. Landlord shall not be liable in any way to Tenant for failure or defect in the supply or character of electric energy or other utility service furnished to the Premises or to the Building by reason of any requirement, act or omission of the public utility serving the Building.

(c) Landlord does not warrant that the services described in paragraph 13(a) hereof shall be free from any slowdown, interruption or stoppage pursuant to voluntary agreement by and between Landlord and governmental bodies and regulatory agencies, or caused by the maintenance, repair, substitution, renewal, replacement or improvements of any of the equipment involved in the furnishing of any such services, or caused by changes of services, alterations, strikes, lockouts, labor controversies, fuel shortages, accidents, acts of God or the elements or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of Landlord; and specifically, no such slowdown, interruption or stoppage of any of such services shall ever be construed as an eviction, actual or constructive, of Tenant, nor shall same cause any abatement of Base Rent or Additional Rent payable hereunder or in any manner or for any purpose relieve Tenant from any of its obligations hereunder, and in no event shall Landlord be liable for damage to persons or property or be in default hereunder as a result of such slowdown, interruption or stoppage.

14. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING.

(a) Except as expressly permitted pursuant to this Article 14, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld conditioned or delayed assign or hypothecate this Lease or any interest herein or sublet the Premises or any part thereof. Any of the foregoing acts without such consent shall be void and shall, at the option of Landlord, terminate this Lease. This Lease shall not, nor shall any interest herein, be assignable as to the interest of Tenant by operation of law without the written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed of the Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a corporate Tenant may, without consent of the Landlord, assign this Lease to its parent or subsidiary in connection with a consolidation or merger of the Tenant, provided the same assignee assumes, in full, the obligation of Tenant under the Lease, and such assignment shall not relieve the Tenant of its obligations under this Lease.

(b) If at any time or from time to time during the term of this Lease Tenant desires to assign this Lease or sublet all or any part of the Premises, Tenant shall give notice to Landlord of such intent. Landlord shall have the option, exercisable by notice given to Tenant within twenty (20) business days after receipt of Tenant's notice, of terminating this Lease (in the case of a proposed assignment) or of reacquiring the portion of the Premises proposed to be sublet and terminating the Lease with respect thereto (in the case of a proposed subletting). In the event Landlord notifies Tenant that it intends to exercise its right to terminate this Lease under this paragraph 14(b), Tenant may withdraw its request for consent to assign or sublet this Lease, as applicable, within five (5) days after receipt of Landlord's notification of its intention to terminate this Lease and nullify Landlord's termination right. If the Landlord does not exercise such option, Tenant shall be free to sublet such space or assign this Lease to any third party subject to the following conditions:

(1) Consent of Landlord shall be obtained, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.;

(2) If the space or Lease is not subleased or assigned within ninety (90) days from the expiration of Landlord's option as set forth above, or any subsequent option as provided in this paragraph 14(b)(2), Tenant shall, prior to entering into a sublease or an assignment, once again give Landlord notice and Landlord shall have twenty (20) days after the receipt thereof of terminating this Lease or reacquiring the applicable portion of the Premises and terminating the lease with respect thereto;

(3) No sublease or assignment shall be valid and no subtenant or assignee shall take possession of the premises subleased or assigned until an executed counterpart of its assignment or sublease has been delivered to Landlord; and

(4) No subtenant or assignee shall have a right further to sublet or assign the Premises without Landlord's prior written consent pursuant to this Article 14.

(c) Any sums or other economic consideration received by Tenant as a result of any subletting or assignment (except rental or other payments received which are attributable to the amortization of the cost of leasehold improvements made to the sublet or assigned portion of the Premises by Tenant for subtenant or assignee, and other reasonable expenses incident to the subletting or assignment, including standard leasing commissions) whether denominated rentals under the assignment, sublease or otherwise, which exceed, in the aggregate, the total sums which Tenant is obligated to pay Landlord under this Lease (prorated to reflect obligations allocable to that portion of the Premises subject to such sublease or assignment) shall be payable to Landlord as Additional Rent under this Lease without affecting or reducing any other obligation of Tenant hereunder. If such subleasing or assignment has been made without the consent of the Landlord as provided herein, Landlord shall be entitled to all economic consideration received by Tenant in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph 14(c), but the receipt of such monies shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the provisions of this Article 14 with respect to assignment and subletting, or the acceptance of such assignee or subtenant as Tenant hereunder.

(d) Regardless of Landlord's consent, no subletting or assignment shall release Tenant of Tenant's obligation or alter the primary liability of Tenant to pay the rental and to perform all other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The acceptance of rental by Landlord from any other person shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Landlord of any provision hereof. Consent to one subletting or assignment shall not be deemed consent to any subsequent assignment or subletting. In the event of default by any assignee of Tenant or any successor of Tenant in the performance of any of the terms hereof, Landlord may proceed directly against Tenant without the necessity of exhausting remedies against such assignee or successor. Landlord may consent to subsequent subletting or assignment of this Lease or amendments or modifications to this Lease with assignees of Tenant, without notifying Tenant, or any successor of Tenant, and without obtaining its or their consent thereto and such action shall not relieve Tenant of liability under this Lease.

(e) In the event that (i) the Premises or any part thereof are sublet and Tenant is in default under this Lease pursuant to the provisions of Article 25, or (ii) this Lease is assigned by Tenant, then, Landlord may collect rent from the assignee or subtenant and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved; but no such collection shall be deemed a waiver of the provisions of this Article 14 with respect to assignment and subletting, or the acceptance of such assignee or subtenant as Tenant hereunder, or a release of Tenant from further performance of the covenants herein contained.

15. ACCESS TO PREMISES. Landlord, its employees and agents, shall have the right to enter the Premises at all reasonable times during normal business hours, upon giving Tenant twenty-four (24) hours notice whenever possible, and at any time in case of an emergency for the purpose of examining or inspecting the same, showing the same to prospective purchasers, mortgagees or (tenants, during the last twelve (12) months of the lease term) of the Building, and making such alterations, repairs, improvements or additions to the Premises or to the Building as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable.

If representatives of Tenant shall not be present to open and permit entry into the Premises at any time when such entry by Landlord is necessary or permitted hereunder, Landlord may enter by means of a master key (or forcibly in the event of an emergency) without liability to Tenant and without such entry constituting an eviction of Tenant or termination of this Lease.

16. REPAIRS.

(a) Landlord shall make all repairs and perform all maintenance necessary to maintain the roof, exterior and structural portions of the Building, and all common areas designed to service more than one Building tenant in good order and repair; provided, however, that Landlord shall not be obligated for any of such repairs until the expiration of a reasonable period of time after written notice from Tenant or any other tenant of the Building that such repairs are needed or after Landlord otherwise becomes aware of the need for any such repairs. In no event shall Landlord be obligated under this Article 16 to repair any damage caused by any act, omission, accident or negligence of Tenant or its employees, agents, invitees, licensees, subtenants, or contractors.

(b) Except as the Landlord is obligated for repairs as provided in paragraph 16(a), Tenant shall make, at its sole cost and expense, all repairs necessary to maintain the Premises and shall keep the Premises and the fixtures therein in neat and orderly condition. Specifically, Tenant shall procure and maintain in effect throughout the term of this Lease, an HVAC maintenance contract, in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord, which shall be delivered to Landlord, with evidence of payment, prior to the Commencement Date and each anniversary thereof. If the Tenant refuses or neglects to maintain the HVAC service contract or to make such repairs, or fails to diligently prosecute the same to completion, after written notice from Landlord of the need therefor, Landlord may procure the HVAC contract or make such repairs at the expense of Tenant and such expense shall be collectible as Additional Rent, along with a ten (10%) percent service charge.

(c) Landlord shall not be liable by reason of any injury to or interference with Tenant's business arising from the making of any repairs, alterations, additions or improvements in accordance with this Article 16 in or to the Premises or the Building or to any appurtenances or equipment therein, but Landlord shall interfere as little as reasonably practicable with the conduct of Tenant's business. There shall be no abatement of rent because of such repairs, alterations, additions or improvements, or except as provided in Article 21.

17. INDEMNIFICATION AND LIABILITY INSURANCE.

(a) Tenant shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend Landlord from and against any and all costs, expenses (including reasonable counsel fees), liabilities, losses, damages, suits, actions, fines, penalties, claims or demands of any kind and asserted by or on behalf of any person or governmental authority, arising out of or in any way connected with, and Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant on account of, (i) any failure by Tenant to perform any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions of this Lease required to be performed by Tenant, (ii) any failure by Tenant to comply with any statutes, ordinances, regulations or orders of any governmental authority, or (iii) any accident, death or personal injury, or damage to or loss or theft of property, which shall occur in or about the Premises occasioned wholly or in part by reason of any act or omission of Tenant, its agents, contractors, invitees or employees. Landlord shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend Tenant from and against costs, expenses (including reasonable counsel fees), liabilities, losses, damages, suits, actions, fines, penalties, claims or demands arising out of or in any way connected with, (i) any failure by Landlord to perform any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions of this Lease required to be performed by Landlord, or (ii) any accident, death or personal injury, or damage to property, which shall occur in or about the Building occasioned by reason of any gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, its agents, contractors, invitees or employees. Landlord shall not be liable for any damages arising from any act or neglect of any other tenant of the Building nor from the failure of Landlord to enforce the provisions of any other lease in the Building. Notwithstanding Landlord's gross negligence, willful misconduct or breach of this Lease, Landlord shall under no circumstances be liable for injury to Tenant's business or for any loss of income or profit therefrom.

(b) During the term of this Lease, including any renewal thereof, Tenant shall obtain and promptly pay all premiums for Comprehensive General Liability Insurance with broad form extended coverage including Contractual Liability Insurance against claims occurring upon in or about the Premises with a minimum coverage of a combined single limit of $2,000,000.00, and all such policies and renewals thereof shall name the Landlord, Landlord's agent and the Tenant as insureds. All policies of insurance shall provide (i) that no material change or cancellation of said policies shall be made without ten (10) days prior written notice to Landlord and Tenant, and (ii) that any loss shall be payable notwithstanding any act or negligence of the Tenant or the Landlord which might otherwise result in the forfeiture of said insurance. On or before the Commencement Date of the term, or such earlier date as Tenant shall be afforded access to the Premises, and thereafter not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration dates of said policy or policies, Tenant shall provide copies of policies or certificates of insurance evidencing coverages required by this Lease. All the insurance required under this Lease shall be issued by insurance companies authorized to do business in the State of Pennsylvania with a financial rating of at least an A+ as rated in the most recent edition of Best's Insurance Reports and in business for the past five years. The aforesaid insurance limits may be reasonably increased from time to time by Landlord.

(c) Landlord shall maintain property insurance in an amount at least equal to the full replacement value of the Building and liability insurance covering all common areas of the Building.

(d) Tenant and Landlord, respectively, hereby release each other from any and all liability or responsibility to the other for all claims of anyone claiming by, through or under it or them by way of subrogation or otherwise for any loss or damage to property covered by the Pennsylvania Standard Form of Fire Insurance Policy with extended coverage endorsement, whether or not such insurance is maintained by the other party. Tenant and Landlord agree to notify their respective insurers of the release of the subrogation claims.

18. WAIVER OF CLAIMS. Landlord and Landlord's agents, servants, and employees shall not be liable for, and Tenant hereby releases and relieves Landlord, its agents, servants, and employees from, all liability in connection with any and all loss of life, personal injury, damage to or loss of property, or loss or interruption of business occurring to Tenant, its agents, servants, employees, invitees, licensees, visitors, or any other person, firm, corporation or entity, in or about or arising out of the Premises, from, without limitation, (a) any fire, other casualty, accident, occurrence or condition in or upon the Premises or the Building; (b) any defect in or failure of (i) plumbing, sprinkling, electrical, heating or air conditioning systems or equipment, or any other systems and equipment of the Premises and the Building, and (ii) the elevators, stairways, railings or walkways of the Building; (c) any steam, gas, oil, water, rain or snow that may leak into, issue or flow from any part of the Premises or the Building from the drains, pipes or plumbing, sewer or other installation of same, or from any other place or quarter; (d) the breaking or disrepair of any installations and equipment; (e) the falling of any fixture or any wall or ceiling materials; (f) broken glass; (g) latent or patent defects; (h) the exercise of any rights by Landlord under the terms and conditions of this Lease; (i) any acts or omissions of the other tenants or occupants of the Building or of nearby buildings; (j) any acts or omissions of other persons; (k) any acts or omissions, including negligence, of Landlord, its agents, servants and employees; and (l) theft, Act of God, public enemy, injunction, riot, strike, insurrection, war, court order, or any order of any governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the Premises.

19. QUIET ENJOYMENT. Tenant's right to quiet possession of the Premises shall not be disturbed by Landlord so long as Tenant shall pay rent and observe and perform all of the provisions of this Lease to be observed and performed by Tenant, unless this Lease is terminated pursuant to the provisions contained herein.

20. NEGATIVE COVENANTS OF TENANT. Tenant agrees that it will not do or suffer to be done, any act, matter or thing objectionable to the fire insurance companies whereby the fire insurance or any other insurance now in force or hereafter to be placed on the Premises or any part thereof, or on the Building, shall become void or suspended, or whereby the same shall be rated as a more hazardous risk than at the date when Tenant receives possession hereunder. In case of a breach of this covenant, in addition to all other remedies of Landlord hereunder, Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as Additional Rent, any and all increase or increases in premiums on insurance carried by Landlord on the Premises, or any part thereof, or on the Building, caused in any way by the occupancy of Tenant.

21. FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY.

(a) If the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty, the damages shall be repaired by and at the expense of Landlord to at least as good a condition as that which existed immediately prior to such damage and the rent until such repairs shall be made shall be apportioned from the date of such fire or other casualty according to the part of the Premises which is usable by Tenant. Landlord agrees to repair such damage within a reasonable period of time after receipt from Tenant of written notice of such damage, subject to any delays caused by Acts of God, labor strikes or other events beyond Landlord's reasonable control. Landlord shall not be liable for any inconvenience or annoyance to Tenant or injury to the business of Tenant resulting in any way from such damage or the repair thereof. Tenant acknowledges notice (i) that Landlord shall not obtain insurance of any kind on Tenant's furniture or furnishings, equipment, fixtures, alterations, improvements and additions, (ii) that it is Tenant's obligation to obtain such insurance at Tenant's sole cost and expense, and (iii) that Landlord shall not be obligated to repair any damage thereto or replace the same. Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease in the event that such repairs cannot be completed within one (1) year from the date of such destruction. Such cancellation right shall be exercised within fifteen (15) days of the date when Tenant is notified that such repairs cannot be completed within said one (1) year period.

(b) If the Premises, in the sole opinion of Landlord, are rendered substantially untenantable by reason of such fire or other casualty, Landlord shall have the right, to be exercised by notice in writing delivered to Tenant within thirty (30) days from and after said occurrence, to elect not to reconstruct the Premises, and, in such event, this Lease and the tenancy hereby created shall cease as of the date of said occurrence, the rent to be adjusted as of said date. If twenty (20%) percent or more of the Premises is damaged by reason of such fire or other casualty and less than nine (9) months would remain of the Lease term or any renewal thereof upon completion of the repairs or reconstruction, either party shall have the right, to be exercised by notice in writing delivered to the other party within thirty (30) days from and after said occurrence, to terminate this Lease, in which case this Lease and the tenancy hereby created shall cease as of the date of said occurrence, the rent to be adjusted as of said date.

(c) If the Building, in the sole opinion of Landlord, shall be substantially damaged by fire or other casualty, regardless of whether or not the Premises were damaged by such occurrence, Landlord shall have the right, to be exercised by notice in writing delivered to Tenant within thirty (30) days from and after said occurrence, to terminate this Lease, and, in such event, this Lease and the tenancy hereby created shall cease as of the date of said termination unless terminated as of the date of said occurrence in accordance with paragraph 21(b), the rent to be adjusted as of the date of such termination.

22. SUBORDINATION. This Lease is subject and subordinate to any mortgage hereafter placed on the Premises or the Building. At the option of any mortgagee respecting the Building, Tenant agrees to attorn to and to recognize the mortgagee or the purchaser at foreclosure sale as Tenant's Landlord for the balance of the term of this Lease subject to all of the terms and provisions hereof. Tenant hereby agrees, however, that, in such event, such mortgagee or the purchaser at foreclosure sale shall not be:

(1) liable for any act or omission of Landlord;

(2) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against Landlord;

(3) bound by any rent or Additional Rent which Tenant may have paid to Landlord for more than the current month; or

(4) bound by any amendment or modification of this Lease made without its consent. The aforesaid subordination and attornment provision shall be self-operative, however, Tenant agrees to promptly execute any other agreement submitted by Landlord in confirmation or acknowledgment of the same. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts (without resort to litigation), to cause all current mortgagees to deliver to Tenant a non-disturbance agreement providing that Tenant's rights under this Lease shall not be affected or disturbed by such lender's mortgage or the exercise of any remedies by such mortgagee (including foreclosure), provided that Tenant shall not be in default under this Lease beyond the expiration of any applicable notice and cure period.

23. CONDEMNATION.

(a) If the whole of the Premises shall be condemned or taken either permanently or temporarily for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, under any statute or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, then in that event the term of this Lease shall cease and terminate from the date when possession is taken thereunder pursuant to such proceeding or purchase. The rent shall be adjusted as of the time of such termination and any rent paid for a period thereafter shall be refunded. In the event a portion only of the Premises or a portion of the Building shall be so taken (even though the Premises may not have been affected by the taking of some other portion of the Building) Landlord may elect to terminate this Lease from the date when possession is taken thereunder pursuant to such proceeding or purchase or Landlord may elect to repair and restore, at its own expense, the portion not taken and thereafter the rent shall be reduced proportionately to the portion of the Premises taken.

(b) In the event of any total or partial taking of the Premises or the Building, Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire award in any such proceeding and Tenant hereby assigns any and all right, title and interest of Tenant now or hereafter arising in or to any such award or any part thereof and hereby waives all right against Landlord and the condemning authority, except that Tenant shall have the right to claim and prove in any such proceeding and to receive any award which may be made to Tenant, if any, specifically for damages for loss of good will, movable trade fixtures, equipment and moving expenses.

(c) If the Premises or the Building is declared unsafe by any duly constituted authority having the power to make such determination, or are the subject of a violation notice or notices requiring repair or reconstruction, in either case for reasons beyond Landlord's control, Landlord, at its option, may make the required repairs or may terminate this Lease, and in the latter event, Tenant shall immediately surrender said Premises to Landlord and thereupon this Lease shall terminate and the rent shall be apportioned as of the date of such termination.

24. ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE. Either party shall, at any time and from time to time and within ten (10) business days after request by the other party execute, acknowledge and deliver to such party a statement in writing (i) certifying that this Lease is in full force and effect without modification or amendment (or, if there have been any modifications or amendments, that this Lease is in full force and effect as modified and amended and setting forth the modifications and amendments); (ii) certifying the dates to which Base Rent and Additional Rent have been paid, as well as Tenant's Percentage; (iii) either certifying that to the knowledge of such party no default exists under this Lease or specifying each such default; (iv) certifying the term of the Lease, any renewal term, and whether any renewal rights have been exercise; (v) certifying whether any hazardous substances have been used or stored by Tenant at the Premises; (vi) certifying any expansion or termination rights of Tenant as to the Premises; and (vii) certifying such other matters as to the Premises, the Building, or Tenant, as the party requesting such certification may reasonably require. It is the intention and agreement of Landlord and Tenant that any such statement by Tenant may be relied upon by a prospective purchaser, title company or a prospective or current mortgagee of the Building, or by others, in any matter affecting the Premises.

25. DEFAULT. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a material default and breach of this Lease by Tenant:

(a) Failure of tenant to take possession of the Premises within thirty (30) days after the execution of this Lease;

(b) The vacation or abandonment of the Premises by Tenant, except pursuant to a sublease or assignment approved by Landlord;

(c) A failure by Tenant to pay, within ten (10) days of written notice that the same is due, any installment of rent hereunder or any such other sum herein required to be paid by Tenant;

(d) A failure by Tenant to observe and perform any other provision or covenant of this Lease to be observed or performed by Tenant, where such failure continues for thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant provided, however, that if the nature of the default is such that the same cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty-day period, Tenant shall not be deemed to be in default if Tenant shall within such period commence such cure and thereafter diligently prosecute the same to completion;

(e) Failure by Tenant to comply with all of the obligations of Tenant under any preexisting lease for the Premises, or any part thereof, or other premises in the Building;

(f) The filing of a petition by or against Tenant for adjudication as a bankrupt or insolvent or for its reorganization or for the appointment pursuant to any local, state or federal bankruptcy or insolvency law of a receiver or trustee of Tenant's property; or an assignment by Tenant for the benefit of creditors; or the taking possession of the property of Tenant by any local, state or federal governmental officer or agency or court-appointed official for the dissolution or liquidation of Tenant or for the operating, either temporary or permanent, of Tenant's business, provided, however, that if any such action is commenced against Tenant the same shall not constitute a default if Tenant causes the same to be dismissed within sixty (60) days after the filing of same.

26. REMEDIES. Upon the occurrence of any such event of default specified in paragraph 25.

(a) Landlord may cure for the account of Tenant any such default of Tenant and immediately recover as Additional Rent any expenditures made and the amount of any obligations incurred in connection therewith, plus fifteen (15%) percent per annum interest from the date of any such expenditure;

(b) Landlord may accelerate all Base Rent and Additional Rent due for the balance of the term of this Lease and declare the same, along with all sums past due, to be immediately due and payable. In determining the amount of any future payments due Landlord on account of Real Estate Taxes and Operation and Maintenance Costs, Landlord may make such determination based upon the amount of Real Estate Taxes and Operation and Maintenance Costs paid by Tenant for the full year immediately prior to such default;

(c) Landlord may immediately proceed to collect or bring action for the whole rent or such part thereof as aforesaid, as well as for liquidated damages provided for hereinafter, as being rent in arrears, or may enter judgment therefor in an amicable action as herein elsewhere provided for in case of rent in arrears, or may file a Proof of Claim in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding for such rent, or Landlord may institute any other proceedings, whether similar to the foregoing or not, to enforce payment thereof;

(d) Landlord may re-enter and repossess the Premises breaking open locked doors, if necessary, and may use as much force as necessary to effect such entrance without being liable to any action or prosecution for such entry or the manner thereof, nor shall Landlord be liable for the loss of any property upon the Premises. Landlord may remove all of Tenant's goods and property from the Premises. Landlord shall have no liability for any damage to such goods and property, nor shall Landlord be responsible for the storage or protection of the same upon removal;

(e) Landlord may, at any time after the occurrence of any event of default re-enter and repossess the Premises and any part thereof and attempt to relet all or any part of such Premises for and upon such terms and to such persons, firms or corporations and for such period or periods as Landlord, in its sole discretion, shall determine, including a term beyond the termination of this Lease; and Landlord shall not be required to accept any tenant offered by Tenant or observe any instruction given by Tenant about such reletting or do any act or exercise any care or diligence with respect to such reletting or to the mitigation of damages. For the purpose of such reletting, Landlord may decorate or make repairs, changes, alterations or additions in or to the Premises to the extent deemed by Landlord desirable or convenient, and the cost of such decoration, repairs, changes, alterations or additions shall be charged to and be payable by Tenant as Additional Rent hereunder, as well as any reasonable brokerage and legal fees expended by Landlord; and any sums collected by Landlord from any new tenant obtained on account of the Tenant shall be credited against the balance of the rent due hereunder as aforesaid. Tenant shall pay to Landlord monthly, on the days when the rent would have been payable under this Lease, the amount due hereunder less the amount obtained by Landlord from such new tenant;

(f) Landlord, at its option, may serve notice upon Tenant that this Lease and the then unexpired term hereof shall cease and expire and become absolutely void on the date specified in such notice, to be not less than five (5) days after the date of such notice without any right on the part of the Tenant to save the forfeiture by payment of any sum due or by the performance of any term, provision, covenant, agreement or condition broken; and, thereupon and at the expiration of the time limit in such notice, this Lease and the term hereof granted, as well as the right, title and interest of the Tenant hereunder, shall wholly cease and expire and become void in the same manner and with the same force and effect (except as to Tenant's liability) as if the date fixed in such notice were the date herein granted for expiration of the term of this Lease. Thereupon, Tenant shall immediately quit and surrender to Landlord the Premises, and Landlord may enter into and repossess the Premises by summary Proceedings, detainer, ejectment or otherwise and remove all occupants thereof and, at Landlord's option, any property thereon without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor;

(g) In the event of termination of this Lease pursuant to provisions of paragraph 26(f), Tenant shall pay to Landlord all rental and other charges payable hereunder due and unpaid to the date of termination, together with liquidated damages in an amount equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the balance of the rent and other charges required to be paid under this Lease from the date of said termination to the end of the term of this Lease, as if the same had not been terminated, the said rent for the balance of the term of this Lease and other charges to be computed in the same manner as provided in paragraph 26(b). In the event any judgment has been entered against Tenant for any amount in excess of the total amount required to be paid by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, then the damages assessed under said judgment shall be re-assessed and a credit granted to the extent of such excess. The parties hereto acknowledge that the damages to which the Landlord is entitled in the event of a breach of this Lease and termination by Landlord are not easily computed and are subject to many variable factors. The parties hereto have agreed to the liquidated damages as herein provided in order to avoid extended litigation in the event of default by Tenant and termination of this Lease;

(h) Landlord shall have the right of injunction, in the event of a breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of the agreements, conditions, covenants or terms hereof, to restrain the same and the right to invoke any remedy allowed by law or in equity, whether or not other remedies, indemnity or reimbursements are herein provided. The rights and remedies given to Landlord in this Lease are distinct, separate and cumulative remedies, and no one of them, whether or not exercised by Landlord, shall be deemed to be in exclusion of any of the others;

(i) In the event of any such default, Tenant hereby empowers any prothonotary or attorney of any court of record to appear for Tenant in any and all actions which may be brought for Base Rent, Additional Rent, or other charges or expenses agreed to be paid by Tenant hereunder and to confess judgment against Tenant for all or any part of Base Rent, Additional Rent, including, at Landlord's option, the rents for the entire unexpired balance of the term of this Lease, computed as aforesaid, and any other charges, payments, costs and expenses reserved as rent or agreed to be paid by Tenant, as well as liquidated damages, and for interest and costs together with an attorney's commission of five (5%) percent thereof. Said authority shall not be exhausted by any one exercise thereof, but judgment may be confessed as aforesaid from time to time and as often as any of said rent, Additional Rent or other charges reserved as rent shall fall due or be in arrears, and such powers may be exercised as well after the expiration of the original term or during any extension or renewal of this Lease. It shall not be necessary for Landlord to file the original of this Lease, but Landlord may file a true copy thereof at the time of the entry of such judgment or judgments;

(j) When this Lease shall be determined by condition broken, either during the original term of this Lease, including any renewal thereof, and also when and as soon as the term hereby created, including any renewal thereof, shall have expired, it shall be lawful for any attorney as attorney for the Tenant to file an agreement for entering in any competent court an amicable action and judgment in ejection against Tenant and all persons or entities claiming under Tenant for the recovery by Landlord of possession of the Premises, for which this Lease shall be sufficient warrant; whereupon, if Landlord so desires, a writ of habere facias possessionem may issue forthwith, without any prior writ or proceeding whatsoever, and provided that, if for any reason after such action shall have been commenced the same shall be determined and the possession of the Premises shall remain in or be restored to Tenant, Landlord shall have the right, upon any subsequent default or defaults or upon the termination or expiration of this Lease, to bring one or more amicable action or actions to recover possession of the Premises. In any amicable action of ejectment, Landlord shall first cause to be filed in such action an affidavit made by it or someone acting for it setting forth the facts necessary to authorize the entry of judgment, and, if a true copy of this Lease (and of the truth a copy of such affidavit shall be sufficient evidence) be filed in such action, it shall not be necessary to file the original as a warrant of attorney, any rule of court, custom or practice to the contrary notwithstanding;

(k) If as a result of any breach or default in the performance of any of the provisions of this Lease, the non-defaulting party uses the services of an attorney in order to secure compliance with such provisions or recover damages therefor, or to terminate this Lease or evict Tenant, the defaulting party hereunder shall reimburse the non-defaulting party upon demand for any and all attorney's fees and expenses so incurred by the non-defaulting party. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages hereunder.

27. REQUIREMENT OF STRICT PERFORMANCE. The failure or delay on the part of either party to enforce or exercise at any time any of the provisions, rights or remedies in this Lease shall in no way be construed to be a waiver thereof, nor in any way to affect the validity of this Lease or any part hereof, or the right of the party to thereafter enforce each and every such provision, right or remedy. No waiver of any breach of this Lease shall be held to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. The receipt by Landlord of rent at a time when the rent is in default under this Lease shall not be construed as a waiver of such default. The receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than the rent due shall not be construed to be other than a payment on account of the rent then due, nor shall any statement on Tenant's check or any letter accompanying Tenant's check be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of the rent due or to pursue any other remedies provided in this Lease. No act or thing done by Landlord or Landlord's agents or employees during the term of this Lease shall be deemed an acceptance of a surrender of the Premises, and no agreement to accept such a surrender shall be valid unless in writing and signed by Landlord.

28. SURRENDER OF PREMISES; HOLDING OVER.

(a) This Lease shall terminate and Tenant shall deliver up and surrender possession of the Premises on the last day of the term hereof, and Tenant waives the right to any notice of termination or notice to quit. Tenant covenants that upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease it shall without notice deliver up and surrender possession of the Premises in the same condition in which Tenant has agreed to keep the same during the continuance of this Lease and in accordance with the terms hereof, normal wear and tear excepted.

(b) Unless Landlord and Tenant are negotiating a renewal of the term of this Lease or Landlord has otherwise agreed in writing that Tenant may remain in the Premises, upon the failure of the Tenant to surrender possession of the Premises upon the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as liquidated damages, an amount equal to twice the rent and additional rent required to be paid under this Lease as applied to any period in which Tenant shall remain in possession after expiration or sooner termination of this Lease. Acceptance by Landlord of rent after such expiration or earlier termination shall not constitute a consent to a holdover hereunder or result in a renewal. The foregoing provisions of this Article 28 are an addition to and do not affect Landlord's right of reentry or any other rights of Landlord hereunder or as otherwise provided by law.

29. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND ORDINANCES. The Tenant agrees that it will, at its sole cost and expense, promptly fulfill and comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations and requirements of the City, County, State and Federal Governments and any and all departments thereof having jurisdiction over the Building, and of the National Board of Fire Underwriters or any other similar body now or hereafter constituted, affecting the Tenant's occupancy of the Premises or the business conducted therein. Landlord agrees that it will promptly fulfill and comply with all laws, ordinances, regulations and requirements applicable to the Building which are the responsibility of Landlord under this Lease.

30. NOTICES. 31. PARKING. Tenant shall be entitled to the non-exclusive use of unreserved vehicle parking spaces. Except as otherwise designated by Landlord, parking spaces shall be available for the common use of the tenants, subtenants and invitees of the Building on a non-exclusive basis, subject to any reasonable restrictions from time to time imposed by Landlord. Tenant shall at all times comply and cause its officers, employees and invitees to comply with any parking Rules and Regulations as Landlord may from time to time reasonably adopt.
