WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Landlord and Tenant entered into a Lease Agreement dated August 1, 2001, which was amended by a certain First Amendment to Lease dated July 26, 2006 and a Second Amendment to Lease dated August 30, 2006 (as amended, hereinafter called the "Original Lease") covering certain premises situate at 350, 358 and 362 Technology Drive, Great Valley Corporate Center, Malvern, Pennsylvania, containing 33,578 square feet and as more fully described in the Lease (the "Original Premises"); and

All electrical, mechanical, plumbing and utility services currently serving the area to become the Expansion Premises, which are not common or otherwise shared services with all tenants, shall be disconnected and terminated by Landlord at the demising wall in order that such systems to be utilized solely by Landlord shall be completely contained within the space retained by Landlord. Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with Tenant and PECO Energy Company in distribution of electricity to the Expansion Premises. All such systems required by Tenant for the use of the Expansion Premises shall be obtained by Tenant as provided below in Section 4. In the event Landlord fails to deliver the Expansion Premises in accordance with this Section 1 on or before the date that is nine (9) months after the date of the this Amendment, Tenant shall have the right in its sole discretion to terminate the Lease effective September 1, 2007.

Provided that Tenant is not in default of the Lease after notice and the expiration of any applicable cure period, Base Rent on the Expansion Premises shall abate for a two (2) month period commencing on the Effective Date. So long as Tenant is not in default hereunder, after notice and the expiration of any applicable cure period, at the time such notice is sent, upon receipt of such notice from Tenant Landlord shall extend the term of this Lease pursuant to this subparagraph 3(b). If Tenant does not send Landlord notice of its desire to extend by the Renewal Notice Date, Tenant shall not have any right thereafter to renew the Term and Landlord shall be free to lease the Premises to anyone it chooses for periods commencing after the Expiration Date. Provided that Tenant has timely exercised its first renewal right provided above, and provided that Tenant is not in default hereunder, after notice and the expiration of any applicable cure period, at the time such notice is sent, Tenant shall have the right, subject to the same conditions and notice provisions set forth in this subparagraph 3(b), to extend the Lease for a second five (5) year term (the "Second Renewal Term") commencing after the expiration of the First Renewal Term; provided Landlord does not require the Premises for Landlord's own use and occupancy. Prior to the commencement of any work by Tenant, Tenant shall submit plans and specifications for improvements to Landlord for Landlord's review and approval. Landlord shall have a period of ten (10) days to review said plans and specifications and provide notice to Tenant of Landlord's approval or rejection of said plans, and, in the case of a rejection, the reasons therefore. Upon approval of Tenant's improvements by Landlord and commencement of the work by Tenant, Landlord shall provide to Tenant a general improvement allowance in the total amount of Five Dollars per square foot ($5.00/sf) for the total square footage of the Original Premises and the Expansion Premises. The general improvement allowance shall be paid in the following manner: Landlord shall pay to Tenant an amount equal to Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) per month, either in the form of a payment from Landlord to Tenant or in the form of a reduction in the monthly rental amount due from Tenant to Landlord, whichever Tenant shall elect until the total amount of the general improvement allowance is paid or credited to Tenant. b. When the Lease shall be determined by condition broken, either during the original term of the Lease, including any renewal thereof, and also when and as soon as the term, including any renewal thereof, shall have expired, it shall be lawful for any attorney as attorney for the Tenant to file an agreement for entering in any competent court an amicable action and judgment in ejection against Tenant and all persons or entities claiming under Tenant for the recovery by Landlord of possession of the Premises, for which this Lease shall be sufficient warrant; whereupon, if Landlord so desires, a writ of habere facias possessionem may issue forthwith, without any prior writ or proceeding whatsoever, and provided that, if for any reason after such action shall have been commenced the same shall be determined and the possession of the Premises shall remain in or be restored to Tenant, Landlord shall have the right, upon any subsequent default or defaults or upon the termination or expiration of this Lease, to bring one or more amicable action or actions to recover possession of the Premises.

In granting these warrants of attorney to confess judgments against Tenant, Tenant hereby knowingly, intentionally and voluntarily, and, on the advice of the separate counsel of Tenant, unconditionally waives any and all rights Tenant has or may have with respect to prior notice and an opportunity for hearing under the respective constitutions and laws of the united states and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

d. In any action or proceeding described above in this Section 9 or in connection therewith, if a copy of this Lease is therein verified by Landlord or someone acting for Landlord to be a true and correct copy of this Lease (and such copy shall be conclusively presumed to be true and correct by virtue of such verification), then it shall not be necessary to file the original of this Lease, any statute, rule of court of law, custom or practice to the contrary notwithstanding. Tenant hereby releases to Landlord, anyone acting for Landlord and all attorneys who may appear for Tenant all errors in procedure regarding the entry of judgment or judgments by confession or otherwise by virtue of the warrants of attorney contained in this Lease, and all liability therefor. The right to enter judgment or judgments by confession or otherwise by virtue of the warrants of attorney contained in this Lease and to enforce all of the other provisions of this Lease may be exercised by any assignee of Landlord's right, title and interest in this Lease in such assignee's own name, any statute, rule of court or law, custom or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

By separate agreement, Landlord shall pay any commission due to Equis Corporation and Brite Realty in connection with this Agreement.

11. Defaults. Each party hereby represents to the other that (i) there exists no default under the Lease either by Tenant or Landlord; (ii) Tenant is entitled to no credit, free rent or other offset or abatement of the rents due under the Lease, except as specifically provided in this Agreement; and (iii) there exists no offset, defense or counterclaim to Tenant's obligation under the Lease.

12. Security Deposit. Upon the execution of this Agreement, Tenant shall make the required additional deposit of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) so that the total amount of the Security Deposit is Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000).

13. Environmental Warranty. To the best of Landlord's knowledge, the Expansion Premises have not been used as a storage site for any Hazardous Materials, as defined under any Federal or Pennsylvania statute, act, law, regulation or order regulating the handling and/or use of specified substances or otherwise pertaining to the environment ("Environmental Laws") in violation of any Environmental Laws.

14. Governmental Incentives. Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant's reasonable requests made in connection with Tenant's efforts to obtain any governmental incentives or funding, provided that Landlord shall not incur any expense or liability or disclose any confidential information in connection with efforts by Tenant to obtain such incentives or funding.

15. Access. Tenant shall have access to the Premises 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year; provided, that such access may be limited due to casualty or acts of force majeure.

16. Unaltered. Except as expressly modified herein, the terms and conditions of the Lease are hereby ratified and confirmed in all other respects and shall remain in full force and effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Second Amendment on the day and year first-above written.
